DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 2 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ito (U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2002/0026586) in view of Cheng (U.S. Patent No. 5,478,246).

Ito discloses an apparatus (FIG. 2) comprising: a body (14); a unit (contents or elements internal to "body" 14) arranged in the body; and a cover (15) made of a transparent material (see pg. 3, paragraph [0056]) to cover a card (20) received by a card receiver (26); wherein the unit comprises the card receiver which receives the card (see FIG. 2); a lamp (24 or 47) for which status can be confirmed without detaching the cover, wherein the card receiver is accommodated in the body (see 26); wherein the card receiver has an insertion slot (28) to receive the card and a receiver guide rail (see sides of "insertion slot" 28).

Ito does not appear to disclose a protective member which protects part of the card that projects from the card receiver when the card receiver receives the card; wherein the protective member is exposed from the body; and the protective member has an exit slot and member guide rail which guides the card to the receiver.

Cheng discloses a protective member (10, 11) which protects part of a card (100) that projects from a card receiver (40) when the card receiver receives the card; wherein the protective member is exposed from a body (12 – back panel of a computer case); and the protective member has an exit slot (14) and a member guide rail (23, 26) which guides the card to the receiver.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the Ito reference with a protective member with the salient features of Cheng, for the purpose of providing an additional housing which can protect the protruding rear portion of the member card from external hit and guide insertion of the memory card into the rail of the inside member card connector or “receiver” (see col. 1, lines 54-58).

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
